

Financial Assistance Request Form

PLEASE PRINT ALL INFO – leaving questions unanswered may result in delays in processing.

As a 501(c)(3) organization, Fort Wayne Center for Learning is committed to making instruction affordable to all families. Our maximum fee of $70/session is well below our cost of providing the specialized, one-on-one instruction. The generous support of the community helps us keep our services affordable to all families.

Additional financial assistance may be available and is determined based on the household income of the household in which the student primarily resides. Factors such as the # of dependents in the household are also taken into consideration. Special or unusual circumstances may also be considered.
